

Independent Fund Administrators & Advisers Pty Ltd

Executive Management Team

Neil Harvey: Managing Director

Neil has 30 years of senior management experience in providing administration and management services to superannuation funds in Australia and overseas. Neil continues to be actively engaged in the management of the IFAA Group and also provides support and mentoring to the Group's broader Executive Team.

Andrew Griffioen: Chief Executive Officer

Andrew provides strategic and operational direction as well as leadership to oversee all business operations and activities to ensure outcomes are achieved in line with the overall strategy and mission of IFAA. Andrew has 20 years' experience in both the Technology & Superannuation Industry. Andrew holds a Diploma of Business Management.

Clinton Nicholas: Chief Information Officer

Clinton has responsibility over the technology for the IFAA Group, leading digital transformation and the IFAA product development roadmap. Additionally, Clinton has extensive experience in transitioning and merging superannuation funds. Clinton has 13 years of superannuation administration experience, he holds a Master of Business Administration, Bachelor of Information Technology & Communications Design, Graduate Certificate in Project Management, and is RG146 qualified.

Cathy Connellan: General Manager, Client Services

Cathy has over 39 years' experience in the superannuation industry and joined IFAA in 2001. Cathy has significant experience in running industry and managed super funds from both an Operational and Trustee perspective. Cathy has 29 years' experience providing Trustee services to industry super funds and she has extensive experience leading projects, specifically the on-boarding and merging of industry superannuation funds. Cathy holds a Commerce Certificate, an Advanced Certificate in Insurance, Associate Diploma in Business Management, RG146 and ASFA 200 certified.

Carolyn Barnes: Manager, IT Development & Maintenance

Carolyn is responsible for IT Development and Maintenance. Prior to joining IFAA, Carolyn was responsible for the Information Technology department at ESI Super for eight years and has spent a further 14 years in various IT roles within the financial sector at Suncorp, AMP, MLC, Prudential (UK) and National Australia Financial Management. She holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Business Administration majoring in Information Systems Management.

